

The Great Bear Hunt!
EVERY MAN TO HIS POST.

East Middlebury, Oct. 29th, 1851
Meeting convened at R. D. Farr's Hotel, and Simeon E. E. Haven was chosen President, and Daniel Bidwell, was chosen Secretary.

It was moved that a committee of five be raised for the purpose of appointing suitable persons, to meet at R. D. Farr's, on the 9th of November inst. The business of that meeting will be to select officers to serve in the Great Bear Hunt to come off at such time as the meeting may designate when met, and make any other arrangements necessary to forward the enterprise.

The Committee reported the following list of names, which were accepted by the meeting.

Middlebury.—Daniel Bidwell, R. D. Farr, A. S. Cook, James Tucker, Harvey Chapman, Porter Chapman, Lucius Shaw, Wm. Goodrich, H. D. Enos.

Bristol.—Charles Soper, Chas. Gay, Otis Chase, Wm. Needham, Wm. Haught, Eli Barnard.

Cornwall.—Pentland Saundens, James Delong, Charles Ford, Edwin Hambleton, New Haven.—Samuel Flint, L. A. Howard, Wm. Taylor.

Salem.—Loyal Kelsey, Wm. Arnold, Charles Everts, Royal Hedding, Charles Weeks, Rollin Howard, Wm. Pray.

Weybridge.—Wm. Samson, Edwin Lawrence, Philo Jewett, D. Twitchell, Daniel Shaw.

Braxton.—Frederick Strong, O. Smalley, Harry Hunt.

Shoreham.—Amos Goodrich, Oliver Russell, D. C. Doane, Joseph Atwood, B. W. Wright.

Ripton.—Charles Adams, Myron Page, Thomas Fuller, Nathan M'Quivey, Wm. Cushman, Joseph Hale.

Hancock.—Royal Flint, Solomon Dunham, John Strong, Nathan T. Claffin, Robert Claffin, A. Ellsworth, G. Hopkins.

Lincoln.—George Greene, John Hawmer, W. Kent.

Briport.—Wm. Baldwin, Ezra Baldwin, Moses Hambleton, Edgar Hill.

Whiting.—Abraham Ellsworth, Raphael Pratt.

Leicester.—Walter Robbins, Lucius Cranton, Charles Enos, Silas Stanley, Wm. Wright.

Goshen.—P. Blood, John Capen, E. Knapp, Noble C. King.

Granville.—Wm. Vinton, A. G. Allen, John Ford, Charles Vinton.

It is desired that there should be a full attendance at the preparatory meeting.

Married.

In Addison, on the 8th inst., by the Rev. Benj. Cox, Mr. Lee Taylor, Sycamore, Ill., to Miss M. LORENZ Niedman of Addison.

In Westport, N. Y., on the 8th inst., by John H. Low, Esq., Mr. Charles E. NEEDHAM, of Addison, Vt., to Miss L. DIKE of Westport.

In Charlotte, Oct. 27, by the Hon. A. S. Beach, Mr. John R. THOMAS, Esq., of Monkton, to Miss MARY, daughter of Nicholas Holmes, of the former place.

Died.

On and after Monday, Nov. 1st, Trains will run as follows:

FOR BOSTON, NEW YORK & INTERMEDIATE PLACES.

— LEAVE —
Burlington at 8:15 a. m. 4:15 p. m.
Vermont 9:00 " 5:00 "
Middlebury 9:42 " 6:25 "
Brattleboro 10:20 " 6:18 "
Rutland 11:00 " 7:00 "

— ARRIVING —
Montgomery 11:25 " 6:55 "
Ludlow 12:00 p. m. 7:35 "
Proctorville 12:15 " 7:42 "
Charter 12:40 " 8:10 "

— LEAVE —
Bellows Falls 1:15 " 8:45 "
Boston 7:50 " 1:00 p. m.

— ARRIVING —
Bellows Falls 7:45 a. m. 12:00 p. m.
Boston 12:00 p. m. 5:15 p. m.

Chester 12:40 p. m. 6:17 "
Proctorville 1:07 " 6:25 "
Ludlow 1:15 " 6:25 "
Cortington 1:52 " 7:00 "
Rutland AR. 2:15 P. M. 7:30 "

L. 3:00 " 7:45 a. m.
Bellows Falls 3:45 " 9:00 "
Middlebury 4:25 " 9:00 "
Vermont 5:00 " 9:37 "

— ARRIVING —
Burlington 5:45 " 10:30 "

INCOMPREHENSIBLE INEXPRESSIBLES!!

I don't know; Guess there is not any of that article at the EXPRESS OFFICE.

But there is a MOST EXCELLENT ASSORTMENT OF READY-MADE CLOTHING

there, as GOOD, CHEAP and SATISFACTORY, as to

QUALITY, FIT AND PRICE, as can be found at a MIDDLEBURY SLOW SHOP.

Long LANE is there, READY AND WILLING at all times, to Show Goods and wait on Customers, and

SELL TO BARNUM or any other Respectable Man, Rich or Poor, Whig or Loco, Black or White.

Gentlemen, call and examine for yourselves.

THE NEW YORK CRYSTAL PALACE,

Will no doubt make a great sensation, when it opens its fashionable outfit for viewing, and has, as they now think, been able to supply that demand, by fitting up some large and commodious rooms, where may be found at all times, a great variety of Furniture, such as,

SOFAS, DIVANS, OTTOMANS, Secretaries, Bureaus, Card Tables, Mahogany Parlor and Rocking Chairs, Canoe-Seating Chairs, and various styles.

All kinds of TABLES, and STANDS, MAGNOY STOOLS covered with hair cloth, and also every other article needed to fit up a parlor in the latest style. Also Drawing Room and Chamber Furniture, of every desirable style and quality.

We intend to keep an assortment of Furniture of the best quality, and same that we can sell very cheap.

In connection with the above business, the subscriber has engaged to manufacture at short notice, all kinds of

MATROSESSE

Such as Spring, Hair, Mats, Palm, Feathers, and Cork.

READY AND WILLING at all times, to Show Goods and wait on Customers, and

SELL TO BARNUM or any other Respectable Man, Rich or Poor, Whig or Loco, Black or White.

Gentlemen, call and examine for yourselves.

THE NEW YORK CRYSTAL PALACE,

which marks the letters of gold over the entrance of the building, will amount to admitting thousands the name of the artist tailor of the age.

NEBUS

On the other hand, the garments of the shop will be of the best quality, and all made to last, and cost of attire, impossibly, will be found to be nothing among the angles of some long LANE near adjacent cordwells; unless they are previously collected by Barum, to display in his museum, alongside the captured wardrobe of Chinese mandarins, Abyssinian sultans, guides and Calmte Tartars, as objects of interesting conjecture to the future antiquaries.

Let us forget the place to get clothes and clothing is at NEBUS, where may be found all that is desirable for men's wear, at prices warranted satisfactory.

Commission Furniture Rooms No. 2, Nichols Building, J. P. & L. W. HUNTINGTON.

Middlebury, Nov. 1, 1852.

THE PUBLIC ARE INVITED TO AN EXAMINATION OF J. P. & L. W. HUNTINGTON'S SPLENDID ASSORTMENT

FASHIONABLE FURNITURE, IN CHANCERY, Nichols' Building, No. 2, (Up Stairs)

Don't know; Guess there is not any of that article at the EXPRESS OFFICE.

But there is a MOST EXCELLENT ASSORTMENT OF READY-MADE CLOTHING

there, as GOOD, CHEAP and SATISFACTORY, as to

QUALITY, FIT AND PRICE, as can be found at a MIDDLEBURY SLOW SHOP.

Long LANE is there, READY AND WILLING at all times, to Show Goods and wait on Customers, and

SELL TO BARNUM or any other Respectable Man, Rich or Poor, Whig or Loco, Black or White.

Gentlemen, call and examine for yourselves.

THE NEW YORK CRYSTAL PALACE,

which marks the letters of gold over the entrance of the building, will amount to admitting thousands the name of the artist tailor of the age.

NEBUS

On the other hand, the garments of the shop will be of the best quality, and all made to last, and cost of attire, impossibly, will be found to be nothing among the angles of some long LANE near adjacent cordwells; unless they are previously collected by Barum, to display in his museum, alongside the captured wardrobe of Chinese mandarins, Abyssinian sultans, guides and Calmte Tartars, as objects of interesting conjecture to the future antiquaries.

Let us forget the place to get clothes and clothing is at NEBUS, where may be found all that is desirable for men's wear, at prices warranted satisfactory.

Commission Furniture Rooms No. 2, Nichols Building, J. P. & L. W. HUNTINGTON.

Middlebury, Nov. 1, 1852.

WILLIAM NASH, IN CHANCERY, J. M. SLADE & CO.

Whereas William Nash of New Haven, in the county of Addison, has filed in the office of the clerk of the court of chancery in county of Addison, a Bill of complaint against William H. Turner, late of said New Haven, now gone to parts to the said Nash unknown, and Leonard Andrews, of Shelburne, in the county of Chittenden; Stating that on the 5th day of January, A. D. 1848, being duly indebted to the said Nash in the sum of $200, he gave to him (the said Turner's) promissory note, bearing date on the first day of January, A. D. 1848, and made payable with annual interest in two years from the date of said note; and he the said Turner, in order to secure the payment of the same, did file on said 5th day of January, a Bill of complaint against the said Nash in the court of chancery in county of New Haven, and described as follows: That the said Nash, being a citizen of the United States, and a minor, had sold to the said Turner, in the year 1846, a tract of land containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward, to the East side of the highway-thence northward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway between the said town of Middlebury and the village of Chester; Palmer's house, left-thence westward to the first mentioned house-containing about 80 rods of land, with a dwelling house, and also the wagon workshop of Oliver Turner, situated on the highway